

1. The second major part of the book of Genesis is comprised of chapters 12-50. It focuses on four people: _____, _____, _____ and _____.
2. The life of Abraham can be summed up in one phrase: he was _____.
3. The separation recorded in Genesis 13 was between _____ and _____.
4. The mysterious character to whom Abraham paid tithes was _____.
5. Abraham's first attempt to produce an heir involved a scheme to adopt his servant _____.
6. The name by which God identified himself in conjunction with the birth of Isaac was _____.
7. A _____ involves a physical appearance of God to man.
8. The "sign" of God's covenant with Abraham was _____.
9. Psalm 1 gives a vivid explanation of the moral decline in the life of _____ as recorded in Genesis 13-19.
10. The name of God associated with Abraham's experience on Mt. Moriah is _____.

1. The second major part of the book of Genesis is comprised of chapters 12-50. It focuses on four people: ABRAHAM, ISAAC, JACOB AND JOSEPH.
2. The life of Abraham can be summed up in one phrase: he was BLESSED TO BE A BLESSING.
3. The separation recorded in Genesis 13 was between ABRAHAM and LOT.
4. The mysterious character to whom Abraham paid tithes was MELCHIZEDEK.
5. Abraham's first attempt to produce an heir involved a scheme to adopt his servant ELIEZER.
6. The name by which God identified himself in conjunction with the birth of Isaac was EL SHADDAI.
7. A THEOPHANY involves a physical appearance of God to man.
8. The "sign" of God's covenant with Abraham was CIRCUMCISION.
9. Psalm 1 gives a vivid explanation of the moral decline in the life of LOT as recorded in Genesis 13-19.
10. The name of God associated with Abraham's experience on Mt. Moriah is JEHOVAH JIREH.