

1. Luke's primary source for his account of the birth of Christ must have been _____.
2. One of Luke's special interests, as evidenced by the material that he alone emphasizes, is the subject of _____.
3. Luke's mention of _____ in the birth account of Jesus was formerly viewed by historians as a problem. More recent discoveries have proved his accuracy.
4. When Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple for the ceremony of redemption, they encountered _____ and _____.
5. The two themes of John the Baptist's preaching were _____ and _____.
6. The primary reason that Jesus submitted to the baptism of John was so that he could _____ with his people.
7. Luke arranges some of his material in a non-chronological way to emphasize the _____ of Jesus.
8. The Pharisees believed that all sickness was caused by _____.
9. The primary concern of the Pharisees was _____.
10. The disease of _____ was a special "picture" of the nature of sin.

1. Luke's primary source for his account of the birth of Christ must have been MARY.
2. One of Luke's special interests, as evidenced by the material that he alone emphasizes, is the subject of PRAYER.
3. Luke's mention of QUIRINIUS in the birth account of Jesus was formerly viewed by historians as a problem. More recent discoveries have proved his accuracy.
4. When Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple for the ceremony of redemption, they encountered SIMEON and ANNA.
5. The two themes of John the Baptist's preaching were REPENTANCE and FORGIVENESS.
6. The primary reason that Jesus submitted to the baptism of John was so that he could IDENTIFY with his people.
7. Luke arranges some of his material in a non-chronological way to emphasize the AUTHORITY of Jesus.
8. The Pharisees believed that all sickness was caused by SIN.
9. The primary concern of the Pharisees was LAW-KEEPING.
10. The disease of LEPROSY was a special "picture" of the nature of sin.