

1. The very best way to transfer any belief, principle or discipline from one person to another is to _____.
2. The address of the Lord's Prayer contains a revolutionary idea in that it instructs us to _____.
3. The Old Testament "sign" to which Jesus alludes when He prophecies concerning his death and burial was the sign of _____.
4. The Valley of Hinnom outside Jerusalem provided both the name "Gehenna" and the image for the New Testament concept of _____.
5. Jesus told the disciples that when they were called upon to defend their faith before secular authorities, the _____ would help them.
6. Every parable has a _____, a _____ and an _____.
7. Pontius Pilate created a crisis in Judea when he tried to pay for the construction of an aqueduct with _____.
8. Jesus' healing of a crippled woman caused a furor with the religious leaders because _____.
9. The main message behind the stories of the tower and the ruler contemplating a war is: _____.
10. The emphasis on all of the "lost" parables of Luke 15 is upon the _____ as opposed to the searching.

1. The very best way to transfer any belief, principle or discipline from one person to another is to model it.
2. The address of the Lord's Prayer contains a revolutionary idea in that it instructs us to call God our "Father".
3. The Old Testament "sign" to which Jesus alludes when He prophecies concerning his death and burial was the sign of Jonah.
4. The Valley of Hinnom outside Jerusalem provided both the name "Gehenna" and the image for the New Testament concept of hell.
5. Jesus told the disciples that when they were called upon to defend their faith before secular authorities, the Holy Spirit would help them.
6. Most parables have a setting, a story and an application.
7. Pontius Pilate created a crisis in Judea when he tried to pay for the construction of an aqueduct with a portion of the Temple tax.
8. Jesus' healing of a crippled woman caused a furor with the religious leaders because He healed her on the Sabbath.
9. The main message behind the stories of the tower and the ruler contemplating a war is: Count the cost!
10. The emphasis on all of the "lost" parables of Luke 15 is upon the finding as opposed to the searching.