

1. Every time that a census was taken in Israel, every adult male was required to pay a _____ tax.
2. The name "Elohim" is a plural form and probably is meant to point us to the doctrine of the _____.
3. The penalty for desecrating the Sabbath was _____.
4. Israel's actions at the foot of Mt. Sinai are a good example of the doctrine of _____.
5. When the Scripture says that in response to Moses' plea, God "relented," it is an example of the language of _____.
6. In Exodus 34, God identifies Himself as a God who is _____.
7. The names of the two men who were gifted by the Spirit of God to build the tabernacle were _____ and _____.
8. The man who served Moses at the front of the Tent of Meeting was named _____.
9. The number of people who died because of the rebellion at Mt. Sinai was _____.
10. Because of the effect of the presence of God, Moses had to wear a _____.

1. Every time that a census was taken in Israel, every adult male was required to pay a ransom tax.
2. The name "Elohim" is a plural form and probably is meant to point us to the doctrine of the Trinity.
3. The penalty for desecrating the Sabbath was death.
4. Israel's actions at the foot of Mt. Sinai are a good example of the doctrine of the total depravity of man.
5. When the Scripture says that in response to Moses' plea, God "relented," it is an example of the language of accommodation.
6. In Exodus 34, God identifies Himself as a God who is Jealous.
7. The names of the two men who were gifted by the Spirit of God to build the tabernacle were Bezalel and Oholiab.
8. The man who served Moses at the front of the Tent of Meeting was named Joshua.
9. The number of people who died because of the rebellion at Mt. Sinai was 3,000.
10. Because of the effect of the presence of God, Moses had to wear a veil.