

1. Martin Luther questioned the _____ of the epistle of James.
2. The man who executed the Apostle James and sought to kill Peter was _____.
3. _____ attempted to purchase the ability to confer the gift of the Holy Spirit upon others.
4. A man named _____ was instrumental in the conversion of Saul of Tarsus.
5. The woman Peter raised from death was named _____.
6. The “Son of Encouragement” was _____.
7. The epistle of James was written about _____ A.D.
8. In Acts 8 and again in Acts 10, the function of the gift of tongues was _____.
9. The critical teachings of the New Testament church concerning the Gospel are sometimes called the _____.
10. The maid who found Peter at the door while the saints were praying for his deliverance was _____.

1. Martin Luther questioned the canonicity (or authenticity) of the epistle of James.
2. The man who executed the Apostle James and sought to kill Peter was Herod Agrippa I.
3. Simon the Magician attempted to purchase the ability to confer the gift of the Holy Spirit upon others.
4. A man named Ananias was instrumental in the conversion of Saul of Tarsus.
5. The woman Peter raised from death was named Dorcas (or Tabitha).
6. The “Son of Encouragement” was Barnabas.
7. The epistle of James was written about 45 A.D.
8. In Acts 8 and again in Acts 10, the function of the gift of tongues was to demonstrate that the experience of the Gentiles was the same as that of the Jews on the Day of Pentecost and their relationship with Christ was the same, also.
9. The critical teachings of the New Testament church concerning the Gospel are sometimes called the “kerygma”.
10. The maid who found Peter at the door while the saints were praying for his deliverance was Rhoda.