

1. _____ is the “chief grace” or most important characteristic of the Spirit-filled life, making it possible to “prefer one another in love.”

2. The motive and most powerful reason James gives for patience and holy living is _____.

3. Confession, and prayer by the elders will bring healing if our sickness is the result of _____.

4. The Book of James is like Proverbs chapters 10 and 12 in both theme and _____.

5. Four Positive possibilities (10 were mentioned) for your tongue listed in Proverbs chapters 10 and 12 are:
 - 1) _____
 - 2) _____
 - 3) _____
 - 4) _____

6. The Hebrew title for the book we know as “Numbers” literally means _____.

7. The tribe of _____ was not counted among the 12 numbered tribes of Israel.

8. Rabbinical tradition tells us that Judah, which was the leader of the tribes that camped to the _____ of the Tabernacle, had a green banner with the emblem of a lion.

9. The deaths of _____ and _____ came as the result of offering to God “unauthorized fire.”

10. _____ is often symbolized in the Old Testament by the disease of leprosy. Three similarities between them are:
 - 1) Both are _____.
 - 2) Both are _____.
 - 3) Both are _____.

1. Humility is the “chief grace” or most important characteristic of the Spirit-filled life, making it possible to “prefer one another in love.”
2. The motive and most powerful reason James gives for patience and holy living is the coming of the Lord.
3. Confession, and prayer by the elders will bring healing if our sickness is the result of sin.
4. The Book of James is like Proverbs chapters 10 and 12 in both theme and style.
5. Four Positive possibilities (10 were mentioned) for your tongue listed in Proverbs chapters 10 and 12 are:
 - 1) The tongue can be a channel through which life flows to others. (10:11)
 - 2) It can bring wisdom to those in need of guidance. (10:13)
 - 3) Our words can be valuable. (10:20)
 - 4) We can use our tongues to nourish others – to build them up. (10:21)
 - 5) We can say the right word at the right time. (10:32)
 - 6) Our words can rescue us. (12:6)
 - 7) Our words can bring blessing back to us. (12:14)
 - 8) The tongue of the wise brings healing. (12:18)
 - 9) A word of truth lasts forever. (12:19)
 - 10) Our words can be encouraging – cheering others up. (12:25)
6. The Hebrew title for the book we know as “Numbers” literally means ‘in the desert’.
7. The tribe of Levi was not counted among the 12 numbered tribes of Israel.
8. Rabbinical tradition tells us that Judah, which was the leader of the tribes that camped to the east of the Tabernacle, had a green banner with the emblem of a lion.
9. The deaths of Nadab and Abihu came as the result of offering to God “unauthorized fire.”
10. Sin is often symbolized in the Old Testament by the disease of leprosy. Three similarities between them are:
 - 1) Both are incurable.
 - 2) Both are progressive.
 - 3) Both are increasingly horrible.