

QUIZWEEK 26

1. The righteousness of God, which is freely offered to us, is an _____ righteousness.
2. The forensic word used by the New Testament to explain God's decree concerning those who exercise faith in Christ is _____.
3. When Christ died on the cross, he _____ the wrath of God.
4. When Jesus said, "It Is Finished," he "bought us back". The economic term used to describe this is _____.
5. Adam was the _____ head of the human race.
6. It would be theoretically (but not actually) possible to be justified by _____.
7. According to Romans 2, _____ is of no value to the Jew who does not obey.
8. The conclusion of 1:18-3:20 is that no one will be _____ before God on the basis of their own effort.
9. The doctrine of Total Depravity might also be called the doctrine of Total _____.
10. The concept of justification by faith is illustrated well by the Old Testament life of _____.

1. The righteousness of God, which is freely offered to us, is an imputed (or credited) righteousness.

2. The forensic word used by the New Testament to explain God's decree concerning those who exercise faith in Christ is justification.

3. When Christ died on the cross, he propitiated the wrath of God.

4. When Jesus said, "It Is Finished," he "bought us back". The economic term used to describe this is redemption.

5. Adam was the federal head of the human race.

6. It would be theoretically (but not actually) possible to be justified by works.

7. According to Romans 2, circumcision is of no value to the Jew who does not obey.

8. The conclusion of 1:18-3:20 is that no one will be justified before God on the basis of his or her own effort.

9. The Doctrine of Total Depravity might also be called the doctrine of Total Inability.

10. The concept of justification by faith is illustrated well by the Old Testament life of Abraham.