

QUIZ*WEEK 28

1. The primary subject with which Paul deals in Romans 14-15 is:
_____.

2. The view which says that because we have been freed from the law we can now do anything we please and just rely on God's grace is called _____.

3. The person who "judges" anyone who engages in a "gray" activity that he himself disagrees with might be known as a professional _____.

4. Romans 16 supports the idea that _____ held significant ministry positions in the early church.

5. Andronicus and Junias were _____ in the early church.

6. _____ Psalms cry out for God to punish evildoers.

7. Five characteristics of sin that can be developed from Psalms 14, 53 and 58 are:
  - a. _____
  - b. _____
  - c. _____
  - d. _____
  - e. _____

8. Israel's failure to drive out the enemies from Canaan stemmed not from inability but from _____.

9. _____ was the nephew (and son-in-law) of Caleb.

10. The man who "judged" alongside Deborah was _____.

1. The primary subject with which Paul deals in Romans 14-15 is: “accept of one another”.

2. The view which says that because we have been freed from the law we can now do anything we please and just rely on God's grace is called antinomianism.

3. The person who "judges" anyone who engages in a "gray" activity that he himself disagrees with might be known as a professional weaker brother.

4. Romans 16 supports the idea that women held significant ministry positions in the early church.

5. Andronicus and Junias were apostles in the early church.

6. Imprecatory Psalms cry out for God to punish evildoers.

7. Five characteristics of sin that can be developed from Psalms 14, 53 and 58 are:
  - a. totally pervasive
  - b. completely extensive
  - c. degenerative
  - d. innate
  - e. terminal

8. Israel's failure to drive out the enemies from Canaan stemmed not from inability but from disobedience.

9. Othniel was the nephew (and son-in-law) of Caleb.

10. The man who "judged" alongside Deborah was Barak.