

1. The judge of Israel who began his public career by overthrowing a statue of Baal was _____.
2. The judge who sacrificed his daughter as the result of a rash vow was named _____.
3. The man who set up his own private shrine and hired a Levite to tend it was named _____.
4. The enemy from whom Gideon delivered the children of Israel was _____.
5. The number of soldiers that Gideon finally took into battle with torches and trumpets was _____.
6. Samson's parents took a vow that made him a _____ from birth.
7. Gideon attempted to discern the will of God by laying out a _____.
8. Manoah heard an angel announce the impending birth of his child _____.
9. The Philistine temple at Gaza which Samson destroyed was dedicated to the god _____.
10. The story of Samson shows that it is possible to experience the _____ of God even when His blessing has been withdrawn.

1. The judge of Israel who began his public career by overthrowing a statue of Baal was Gideon.
2. The judge who sacrificed his daughter as the result of a rash vow was named Jephthah.
3. The man who set up his own private shrine and hired a Levite to tend it was named Micah.
4. The enemy from whom Gideon delivered the children of Israel was Midian.
5. The number of soldiers that Gideon finally took into battle with torches and trumpets was 300.
6. Samson's parents took a vow that made him a Nazarite from birth.
7. Gideon attempted to discern the will of God by laying out a fleece.
8. Manoah heard an angel announce the impending birth of his child Samson.
9. The Philistine temple at Gaza which Samson destroyed was dedicated to the god Dagon.
10. The story of Samson shows that it is possible to experience the power of God even when His blessing has been withdrawn.