

1. The husband of Bathsheba was _____ the Hittite.
2. Psalm ____ was David's prayer asking for forgiveness after he was confronted by Nathan the prophet.
3. The belief that all humans are born with a corrupt nature and a propensity toward sin is called the doctrine of _____.
4. The death of Bathsheba's husband occurred during a war with the _____.
5. Psalm ____ is a celebration of God's forgiveness written after David had repented of his sin with Bathsheba.
6. David's son _____ raped his own sister and was murdered by his brother.
7. David sent _____ back to Jerusalem with the ark of God when the priest tried to follow the king into exile.
8. Saul's relative _____ cursed David and hurled stones at him when he fled from Jerusalem.
9. _____ engineered the scheme that brought Absalom back from exile after the murder of his brother.
10. Three words that David used in Psalm 32 to describe our sinful natures are _____, _____ and _____.

1. The husband of Bathsheba was Uriah the Hittite.
2. Psalm 51 was David's prayer asking for forgiveness after he was confronted by Nathan the prophet.
3. The belief that all humans are born with a corrupt nature and a propensity toward sin is called the doctrine of original sin.
4. The death of Bathsheba's husband occurred during a war with the Ammonites.
5. Psalm 32 is a celebration of God's forgiveness written after David had repented of his sin with Bathsheba.
6. David's son Amnon raped his own sister and was murdered by his brother.
7. David sent Zadok back to Jerusalem with the ark of God when the priest tried to follow the king into exile.
8. Saul's relative Shimei cursed David and hurled stones at him when he fled from Jerusalem.
9. Joab engineered the scheme that brought Absalom back from exile after the murder of his brother.
10. Three words that David used in Psalm 32 to describe our sinful natures are sin, transgression and iniquity (or guile).