

1. Solomon's phrase to describe all of the wisdom, understanding or knowledge that can be gained by human experience without reference to God is _____.
2. According to Solomon, there is optimism and hope that good will triumph because God is _____.
3. The "beloved" of Solomon in the Song of Solomon was the _____ maiden.
4. Many Bible interpreters have understood the Song of Solomon to be _____.
5. The actual destination of Paul's letter to the _____ is sometimes questioned because the name of the city is missing in two early manuscripts.
6. The first part of each of Paul's letters is always _____ in nature and the second part is _____.
7. One major theme of Ephesians is _____.
8. Salvation is all of _____.
9. The proper use of _____ is one of the themes of Ephesians 4.
10. According to Ephesians 5 and 6, the primary fruit of the spirit-filled life is _____.

1. Solomon's phrase to describe all of the wisdom, understanding or knowledge that can be gained by human experience without reference to God is "meaningless, meaningless, all is meaningless".
2. According to Solomon, there is optimism and hope that good will triumph because God is judge.
3. The "beloved" of Solomon in the Song of Solomon was the Shulammitte maiden.
4. Many Bible interpreters have understood the Song of Solomon to be allegorical.
5. The actual destination of Paul's letter to the Ephesians is sometimes questioned because the name of the city is missing in two early manuscripts.
6. The first part of each of Paul's letters is always doctrinal in nature and the second part is practical.
7. One major theme of Ephesians is salvation.
8. Salvation is all of grace.
9. The proper use of spiritual gifts is one of the themes of Ephesians 4.
10. According to Ephesians 5 and 6, the primary fruit of the spirit-filled life is submission.