1. The son of Asa, King of Judah, who completed the religious reforms of his father and entered into an alliance with Ahab of Israel was _____.

2. The prophet of God who prophesied the death of Ahab was _____.

3. The Biblical word that describes the experience of being taken directly to heaven without first experiencing death is _____.

4. Both Israel and Judah had kings named _____and _____ at about the same time.

5. The miracle performed by Moses, Elijah and Elisha was _____.

6. The servant of Elisha, _____was stricken with leprosy as a punishment from God.

7. The great "power-prophets" of Israel were _____ and _____.

8. The Syrian general cured of leprosy was named _____.

9. God's prophet anointed a general named _____ to be the king of Israel after Joram, the last king of the house of Omri.

10. After learning that her son Joram had been murdered by his general, _____ her fate by being thrown from a window by her own servants.

1. The son of Asa, King of Judah, who completed the religious reforms of his father and entered into an alliance with Ahab of Israel was Jehoshaphat.

2. The prophet of God who prophesied the death of Ahab was Micaiah.

3. The Biblical word that describes the experience of being taken directly to heaven without first experiencing death is translation.

4. Both Israel and Judah had kings named Ahaziah and Jehoram at about the same time.

5. The miracle performed by Moses, Elijah and Elisha was crossing on dry land.

6. The servant of Elisha, Gehazi, was stricken with leprosy as a punishment from God.

7. The great "power-prophets" of Israel were Elijah and Elisha.

8. The Syrian general cured of leprosy was named Naaman.

9. God's prophet anointed a general named Jehu to be the king of Israel after Joram, the last king of the house of Omri.

10. After learning that her son Joram had been murdered by his general, Jezebel met her fate by being thrown from a window by her own servants.