

1. Possibly because of the dangerous times in which he lived, God commanded Jeremiah not to _____.
2. God sent Jeremiah to visit the house of a _____ in order to create a vivid picture of His relationship to Judah.
3. According to Jeremiah, "The heart is _____ above all things and beyond cure."
4. The chief priest who had Jeremiah arrested was named _____.
5. When Jeremiah was declared to be a traitor, he was publicly humiliated by being placed in _____.
6. The son of King Josiah, _____, was taken off to exile in Egypt from which he never returned.
7. Jeremiah prophesied that the length of Judah's exile in Babylon would be _____ years.
8. In chapter 26, Jeremiah names the prophet _____ and quotes from his prophecy.
9. The spectacle of Jeremiah wearing a _____ in the city of Jerusalem provoked the false prophet _____ to remove it and denounce God's prophet.
10. In a vision explained to King Zedekiah, the basket of bad figs represented _____.

1. Possibly because of the dangerous times in which he lived, God commanded Jeremiah not to marry.

2. God sent Jeremiah to visit the house of a potter in order to create a vivid picture of His relationship to Judah.

3. According to Jeremiah, "The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure."

4. The chief priest who had Jeremiah arrested was named Pashhur.

5. When Jeremiah was declared to be a traitor, he was publicly humiliated by being placed in the stocks .

6. The son of King Josiah, Shallum (Jehoahaz), was taken off to exile in Egypt from which he never returned.

7. Jeremiah prophesied that the length of Judah's exile in Babylon would be 70 years.

8. In chapter 26, Jeremiah names the prophet Micah and quotes from his prophecy.

9. The spectacle of Jeremiah wearing a yoke in the city of Jerusalem provoked the false prophet Hannah to remove it and denounce God's prophet.

10. In a vision explained to King Zedekiah, the basket of bad figs represented the king and those left behind in Jerusalem (the good figs were the captives taken to Babylon).