

1. After the assassination of Gedaliah, Jeremiah was forced into exile in _____ by Johanan and his followers.
2. Feeling abandoned by God, Johanan and his followers initiated the worship of _____.
3. God reassured _____ that his life would not be taken because he wrote Jeremiah's words against King Jehoiakim on a scroll.
4. The _____ were a sea faring people and the traditional enemies of Israel. Ashkelon was one of their principal cities.
5. The people of _____ were historic enemies of Israel. They traced their lineage back to Lot. One of their kings, Mesha, sacrificed his own son to an idol in an attempt to gain help in a battle against Israel.
6. Thirty-seven years after entering Babylon as a prisoner of war, King _____ was given his freedom and lived out the remainder of his life as a member of the court at Babylon.
7. _____ begins with the words "By the waters of Babylon we sat and wept."
8. Jeremiah composed _____ at the death of King Josiah, that were preserved in a book.
9. Three of the five chapters of Lamentations begin with the word _____.
10. Chapters 1-4 of Lamentations are arranged _____.

1. After the assassination of Gedaliah, Jeremiah was forced into exile in Egypt by Johanan and his followers.

2. Feeling abandoned by God, Johanan and his followers initiated the worship of the queen of heaven.

3. God reassured Baruch that his life would not be taken because he wrote Jeremiah's words against King Jehoiakim on a scroll.

4. The Philistines were a sea faring people and the traditional enemies of Israel. Ashkelon was one of their principal cities.

5. The people of Moab were historic enemies of Israel. They traced their lineage back to Lot. One of their kings, Mesha, sacrificed his own son to an idol in an attempt to gain help in a battle against Israel.

6. Thirty-seven years after entering Babylon as a prisoner of war, King Jehoiachin was given his freedom and lived out the remainder of his life as a member of the court at Babylon.

7. Psalm 137 begins with the words "By the waters of Babylon we sat and wept."

8. Jeremiah composed "Laments" at the death of King Josiah, that were preserved in a book.

9. Three of the five chapters of Lamentations begin with the word "How".

10. Chapters 1-4 of Lamentations are arranged alphabetically.