

1. In the mind of the apostle Paul, the _____ of the Spirit is more important than the _____ of the Spirit.

2. The highest kind of love, the love that caused God to send Christ to die for us is denoted by the Greek word _____.

3. Spiritual gifts, according to the letter of I Corinthians, are given for the purpose of _____.

4. According to 1 Corinthians 15, all of Christianity rises or falls on the truth of _____.

5. A baptismal practice mentioned in the book of I Corinthians for which there is no explanation anywhere in Scripture is _____.

6. According to 2 Corinthians 1, one reason we have to endure trials is so that we can _____.

7. In 2 Corinthians 4, Paul says we have a treasure in _____.

8. Paul believed that his Letters of recommendation were _____.

9. After his resurrection, Jesus appeared to more than _____ people.

10. The theological word that describes the process by which we are becoming more and more like Christ is _____.

1. In the mind of the apostle Paul, the fruit of the Spirit is more important than the gifts of the Spirit.
2. The highest kind of love, the love that caused God to send Christ to die for us is denoted by the Greek word agape.
3. Spiritual gifts, according to the letter of I Corinthians, are given for the purpose of building the body.
4. According to 1 Corinthians 15, all of Christianity rises or falls on the truth of the resurrection.
5. A baptismal practice mentioned in the book of I Corinthians for which there is no explanation anywhere in Scripture is baptism for the dead.
6. According to 2 Corinthians 1, one reason we have to endure trials is so that we can comfort others.
7. In 2 Corinthians 4, Paul says we have a treasure in clay jars.
8. Paul believed that his Letters of Recommendation were to Corinthian believers themselves .
9. After his resurrection, Jesus appeared to more than 500 people.
10. The theological word that describes the process by which we are becoming more and more like Christ is sanctification.