

1. According to his "self-defense" in II Corinthians 11, Paul had been shipwrecked ____ times in his missionary journeys.

2. Subsequent to his amazing vision of heaven, Paul says he was afflicted by a _____.

3. According to Paul in II Cor. 12, three things that mark an apostle are _____, _____ and _____.

4. _____, was a prophet who lived at the same time as Jeremiah. His book wrestles with the problem of evil and ends on a great note of faith.

5. The main subject of the book of Zephaniah is _____.

6. At the time of Ezekiel's call, he saw a _____ and four _____.

7. A study of the Old Testament Book of Ezekiel should aid us in understanding the New Testament book of _____.

8. Chapter 3 of Ezekiel describes the prophet as a _____.

9. God's great desire, as signaled by a phrase repeated again and again in the book of Ezekiel was _____.

10. The Jews exiled to Babylon lived in a place called _____.

1. According to his "self-defense" in II Corinthians 11, Paul had been shipwrecked 3 times in his missionary journeys.

2. Subsequent to his amazing vision of heaven, Paul says he was afflicted by a thorn in the flesh.

3. According to Paul in II Cor. 12, three things that mark an apostle are signs, wonders and miracles.

4. Habakkuk, was a prophet who lived at the same time as Jeremiah. His book wrestles with the problem of evil and ends on a great note of faith.

5. The main subject of the book of Zephaniah is judgment.

6. At the time of Ezekiel's call, he saw a wheel within a wheel and four living creatures.

7. A study of the Old Testament Book of Ezekiel should aid us in understanding the New Testament Book of Revelation.

8. Chapter 3 of Ezekiel describes the prophet as a watchman.

9. God's great desire, as signaled by a phrase repeated again and again in the book of Ezekiel was "then they shall know that I am the Lord."

10. The Jews exiled to Babylon lived in a place called Tel Aviv.