

1. When the elders came to inquire of Ezekiel, God would not answer their questions because their fathers had engaged in _____, desecrated the _____ and rejected God's _____.
2. Ezekiel was told to map out two roads for the King of Babylon: one to Jerusalem and the other to _____.
3. God told Ezekiel that He was going to destroy Judah because He could not find a man who would _____.
4. The two sisters, who like Samaria and Jerusalem engaged in prostitution, were named _____ and _____.
5. Ezekiel's cooking pot was a picture of the city of _____.
6. God told Ezekiel that his tongue would be loosed when _____.
7. God forbade Ezekiel to mourn when _____.
8. The city of _____ was to be destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar. Its ruins would be scraped into the sea and the city would never be inhabited again.
9. The island portion of the city-state referred to in Ezekiel 28 (cf. question #8) was finally conquered by _____.
10. Rabbah was the capital city of _____.

1. When the elders came to inquire of Ezekiel, God would not answer their questions because their fathers had engaged in idolatry, desecrated the Sabbath and rejected God's laws.
2. Ezekiel was told to map out two roads for the King of Babylon: one to Jerusalem and the other to Rabbah.
3. God told Ezekiel that He was going to destroy Judah because He could not find a man who would stand in the gap.
4. The two sisters, who like Samaria and Jerusalem engaged in prostitution, were named Oholah and Oholibah.
5. Ezekiel's cooking pot was a picture of the city of Jerusalem.
6. God told Ezekiel that his tongue would be loosed when a messenger came with news of Jerusalem's fall.
7. God forbade Ezekiel to mourn when his wife died.
8. The city of Tyre was to be destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar. Its ruins would be scraped into the sea and the city would never be inhabited again.
9. The island portion of the city-state referred to in Ezekiel 28 (cf. question #8) was finally conquered by Alexander the Great.
10. Rabbah was the capital city of Ammon.