

1. Ezekiel's ability to speak freely returned when _____.
2. The people who remained behind in Jerusalem believed that God had given them the _____.
3. In Ezekiel 34, God says that he will become the _____ of Israel.
4. In Ezekiel's third vision he sees a valley full of _____.
5. God told Ezekiel to join two sticks together to symbolize _____.
6. The battle described in Ezekiel 30 will occur at a place called _____.
7. The two kingdoms that God will incite to attack Israel in the end times are _____ and _____.
8. The subject of Ezekiel's fourth vision was _____.
9. The most difficult "detail" of Ezekiel's final vision for those who expect a literal fulfillment involves the reintroduction of _____.
10. The high point of Ezekiel's final vision involves the return of the _____.

1. Ezekiel's ability to speak freely returned when the messenger arrived.
2. The people who remained behind in Jerusalem believed that God had given them the land.
3. In Ezekiel 34, God says that he will become the Shepherd of Israel.
4. In Ezekiel's third vision he sees a valley full of dry bones.
5. God told Ezekiel to join two sticks together to symbolize Israel and Judah restored.
6. The battle described in Ezekiel 30 will occur at a place called Harmegedda.
7. The two kingdoms that God will incite to attack Israel in the end times are Gog and Magog.
8. The subject of Ezekiel's fourth vision was the Temple.
9. The most difficult "detail" of Ezekiel's final vision for those who expect a literal fulfillment involves the reintroduction of sacrifices.
10. The high point of Ezekiel's final vision involves the return of the Shekinah glory.