

1. The river flowing from beneath the temple in Ezekiel's vision emptied into the _____ Sea.
2. 'Jehovah-Shammah', the name with which the Book of Ezekiel ends, means: _____.
3. The soldiers who guarded Paul in Rome were probably members of Caesar's elite _____ guard.
4. Paul's command to "work out your salvation with fear and trembling" comes at the end of a passage dealing with the subject of _____.
5. The thing of which Christ "emptied Himself" in Philippians chapter 2 was His _____.
6. The three dimensions of our salvation are: _____, _____ and _____.
7. According to Philippians, Paul was from the tribe of _____.
8. One of Paul's apprentices who went on to become the "bishop" of the church in Rome was _____.
9. Titus was a worker Paul left behind to help establish the churches in _____.
10. Philemon was the owner of a runaway slave named _____.

1. The river flowing from beneath the temple in Ezekiel's vision emptied into the Dead Sea.
2. 'Jehovah-Shammah', the name with which the Book of Ezekiel ends, means: 'The Lord is there'.
3. The soldiers who guarded Paul in Rome were probably members of Caesar's elite Praetorian guard.
4. Paul's command to "work out your salvation with fear and trembling" comes at the end of a passage dealing with the subject of unity in the church.
5. The thing of which Christ "emptied Himself" in Philippians chapter 2 was His divine glory.
6. The three dimensions of our salvation are: justification, sanctification, and glorification .
7. According to Philippians, Paul was from the tribe of Benjamin.
8. One of Paul's apprentices who went on to become the "bishop" of the church in Rome was Clement.
9. Titus was a worker Paul left behind to help establish the churches in Crete.
10. Philemon was the owner of a runaway slave named Onesimus.