

1. The work of Zerubbabel on the rebuilding of the temple was halted after the death of because of political opposition in the province of Trans-Euphrates, and resumed again during the reign of _____.

2. After the temple was rebuilt, Rehum and other enemies of Jerusalem tried to prevent the rebuilding of the city by writing a letter to King _____.

3. God sent the prophet Haggai to tell the people of Jerusalem that it was time to ____.

4. God called Zerubbabel, the governor, His " _____
_____".

5. The four horns in the vision of Zechariah were terrified by the appearance of four from the Lord.

6. In Zechariah's vision, the lampstand was flanked by two _____.

7. In Zechariah, God's curse against thieves and against those who swear falsely was written upon a _____.

8. A measuring basket containing a _____ was deposited by two angels in the country of Babylonia.

9. Silver and Gold from Babylon were used, at God's command, to fashion a crown for _____.

10. The two staves broken by the shepherd in Zechariah 11 were named _____ and _____.

1. The work of Zerubbabel on the rebuilding of the Temple was halted after the death of Cyrus because of political opposition in the province of Trans-Euphrates, and resumed again during the reign of Darius.

2. After the Temple was rebuilt, Rehum and other enemies of Jerusalem tried to prevent the rebuilding of the city by writing a letter to King Artaxerxes.

3. God sent the prophet Haggai to tell the people of Jerusalem that it was time to rebuild the Temple.

4. God called Zerubbabel, the governor, His "signet ring".

5. The four horns in the vision of Zechariah were terrified by the appearance of four craftsmen from the Lord.

6. In Zechariah's vision, the lampstand was flanked by two olive trees.

7. In Zechariah, God's curse against thieves and against those who swear falsely was written upon a flying banner.

8. A measuring basket containing a woman was deposited by two angels in the country of Babylonia.

9. Silver and Gold from Babylon were used, at God's command, to fashion a crown for Joshua.

10. The two staffs broken by the shepherd in Zechariah 11 were named Favor and Union.