

1. Christ's letters to the churches at _____ and _____ contain no commendation.

2. The view that holds that God's invitation to John to "Come up here", at the beginning of Chapter 4 of Revelation, has special significance for the church is called _____.

3. The "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" appear in the Book of Revelation and in the Old Testament Book of _____.

4. A _____ believes that the seals, trumpets and bowls all reflect the same period of time.

5. The "missing tribe" in the list of tribes in Revelation 7 is _____.

6. The sealing of the 144,000 in the Book of revelation is similar to the sealing of the saints recorded in the Old Testament Book of _____.

7. The two major themes emphasized in John's description of the tribulation are _____ and _____.

8. The figure of the _____ in Revelation 12 is almost certainly a figure of Christ.

9. The Old Testament book which provides the source for the images of the beasts is _____.

10. The Marriage Supper of the Lamb is mentioned in the _____ vision of the Book of Revelation.

1. Christ's letters to the churches at Laodicea and Smyrna contain no commendation.
2. The view that holds that God's invitation to John to "Come up here", at the beginning of Chapter 4 of Revelation, has special significance for the church is called pretribulation.
3. The "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" appear in the Book of Revelation and in the Old Testament Book of Zechariah.
4. A recapitulationist believes that the seals, trumpets and bowls all reflect the same period of time.
5. The "missing tribe" in the list of tribes in Revelation 7 is Dan.
6. The sealing of the 144,000 in the Book of revelation is similar to the sealing of the saints recorded in the Old Testament Book of Ezekiel.
7. The two major themes emphasized in John's description of the tribulation are the persecution of God's saints and the judgment upon their enemies.
8. The figure of the man child in Revelation 12 is almost certainly a figure of Christ.
9. The Old Testament book which provides the source for the images of the beasts is Daniel.
10. The Marriage Supper of the Lamb is mentioned in the third vision of the Book of Revelation.